VANDALIA, Dec. 3, 1838.

Well, the Legislature has closed its labors for the day. W. L. D. Ewing is Speaker of the House, after four ballotings, by a majority of ONE vote!

The House met at 11 o'clock. First ballot for Speaker, Ewing 41, Lincoln 38, scattering 6. 2d ballot, Ewing 41, Lincoln 39, scattering 6. 3d ballot, Ewing 40, Lincoln 34, scattering 10.—Adjourned till 2 o'clock. Balloting renewed: 4th ballot, Ewing 43, Lincoln 38, scattering 4. Three whigs and three locos absent. D. Prickett was elected Clerk without much opposition. For enrolling and engrossing Clerk—J R. Loveless 42, E. F. Ryan 43—a majority of ONE vote again! Wm. C. Murphy was elected door keeper, and then the House adjourned.

In the Senate, Mr. Davidson took the chair at 11 o'clock. BENJ. BOND was chosen secretary on the first ballot—21 to 17. WM. MOORE was then elected engrossing and enrolling Clerk, 23 to 14. After eight ballotings LEVAN LANE was chosen sergeant-at-arms; and the senate adjourned.

It will thus be seen that there is a majority of whigs in the senate, all their officers elected being whigs, and a very small majority of Locos in the House. Indeed, it is conceding something to allow them any majority. When it is recollected that in 1836, the House of Representatives stood 27 whigs to 64 administration members it must be acknowledged, if we have not succeeded to the full extent of our wishes, that there is a revolution going on in the public mind which will lead to the best results. GEN. A. CREEL, (Whig) has been elected a member of the Senate from the Lawrence county district, in the place of J. C. RILEY [V. B.] resigned. Ib

L. H. PECK, has been elected Senator from Crawford and Vincennes, in the place of Peter Prayne, deceased. Ib

---

RESIGNATION OF SENATOR CUTHBERT.—We learn from the Milledgeville Journal, of the 16th, that Senator Cuthbert has resigned his seat in the U. States Senate. He construed the result of the election in his State, as proof conclusive that his constituents are opposed to the Sub-treasury, and in obedience to his pledges, resigned. Ib

---

MISSISSIPPI SENATOR.—The Governor of Mississippi has appointed Thomas H. Williams, of Pontotoc, a Senator in the place of James F. Trotter, resigned. He holds his seat until the 4th of March next, unless the legislature should supercede him. Mr. W's. political views are not known, but it is supposed he is whig—Mr. Trotter having resigned because he held opinions at variance with a majority of his constituents. Ib

---

DELAWARE.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Chronicle states, that the [illegible] Van Buren candidate for Congress is elected there will be a whig majority of [illegible] on joint ballot in the legislature. This will secure the re-election of Mr. Bayard to the U. S. Senate. Ib

---

NEW YORK.—The final result of the election in this State is not ascertained. Enough, however, is known, to show the indiscriminate and everlasting overthrow of Van Burenism. The Albany Evening Journal gives the latest returns, which make Seward's probable majority 11,711. The Assembly stands 80 whigs to 47 locos. The members of Congress 21 whigs to 19 locos. Four whig candidates for Congress were defeated by less than 100 votes each. Of the eight Senators elected, the whigs have 5, the locos 2, and the Conservatives 1. On joint ballot in the legislature the whigs will have a majority of 31.

The loss of the loco foco party, since 1833 in members of Congress, is eleven—members of the assembly forty-eight—and their aggregate loss of votes in the entire state, compared with 1836, is about FORTY THOUSAND!! Ib

MICHIGAN.—CRARY, V. B has been elected to Congress in this State, over WARD W. by about 100 majority.—At the last election the loco focos elected their candidate by 1121 majority.—One more battle, and Michigan, like New York, will send Loco-focoism to its long home.

From the Missouri Republican.

RICHMOND, Nov. 13, 1838.

Mr. A. B CHAMBERS:—

DEAR SIR:—Yours of the [illegible] inst. came to hand yesterday, desiring some information on the Mormon war. The [illegible] attending the receipt of your letter, [illegible] enable some other person to give you the desired information [illegible] However, should the information in [illegible] possession gratify the public it is at [illegible] service.

The causes which led to the [illegible] disturbances between the Mormons and the citizens of this and the adjoining counties arose out of a state of things brought [illegible] by the Mormons themselves. When they came into this county, they had expended nearly all their means [illegible] people,) and were obliged to go in debt for provisions and stock. These they bought of our fellow citizens on credit, being apparently an economical, industrious people. They [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] things went on [illegible] was [illegible] from the [illegible] the Mormons, that the [illegible] their tenets—that the [illegible] [illegible] Rigdon pro[illegible] [illegible] would [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] one of them [illegible]—The Justice in Caldwell county are [illegible] the debts could be collected, the Justices, Constables, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Mormons and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of Church [illegible] the laws [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] thought. This produced a [illegible] [illegible] and military [illegible] ployed to aid the civil in bringing offenders to justice. In order to make the [illegible] [illegible] part of the Mormons [illegible] this time, the band of Danites, the band of Gideon, and the Destroying Bands were organized by Jo. Smith and Rigdon, to intimidate the weak or force the dissenting to compliance, it was a part of their duty to carry all the decrees of Smith and Rigdon into full effect, to beat, kill or destroy all in opposition to them, or those who would oppose them, by any means they might think proper. Armed and backed by this band of assassins, Smith and Rigdon exhorted their followers to do those acts of violence in Daviess which has drawn down on them the vengeance of the military power of this State. Under this [illegible] Smith [illegible] Daviess county, was pillaged and burnt [illegible] [illegible] Far West, and lodged in what is called the Bishop's store-house, to be dealt out to the Mormons as the heads of the [illegible] directed.—Smith, Rigdon and [illegible] exhorting them to persevere, that such things were right and proper, and to make themselves fat from the spoils of the Gentiles. Next, they proceeded to [illegible] stock in Daviess, to take the grain [illegible] citizens, to plunder and burn their [illegible] driving out the women and children [illegible] in short, to take all they found at any time, and use it as their own.

These things coming known to the citizens of Ray and other counties, they held meetings and [illegible] resolutions calling on the Governor [illegible] aid [illegible] force; but before [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that [illegible] [illegible] We called on Major General Atchison and Lucas, of the 3d and 4th Divisions of Militia, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] their credit, and call [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] They ordered [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] 2,000 men, to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the Gen. B [illegible]'s [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Danites. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] The [illegible] had three [illegible] several [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the Danites, [illegible] [illegible] The troops of Gen. Lucas and Atchison had [illegible] time assembled in such numbers [illegible] [illegible] northern part of Ray county, until the whole force assembled, which checked the depredations of these villains. The attack on B[illegible] [illegible] struck such a panic that the whole population of women and children fled to and beyond the Missouri, and the citizens of Lexington and vicinity showed them every mark of hospitality, for which they are deserving our warmest thanks.

On Monday the 29th Oct the divisions of Gen. Lucas and part of Gen. Atchison were in force sufficient to take up the line of march for Far West, and on Tuesday evening the whole army, 2000 mounted men, took a position on the south of that town, distant about three quarters of a mile, and lay on their arms that night, in full view of the entrenched garrison. So unexpected was this movement, to the Mormons that a party of 200 mounted men, under Col. Hinkle, was cut off from Far West, and on returning, found himself intercepted, the army being between him and Far West. By a circuitous rout, he however, arrived there, tho' not without being pushed by Gen. Doniphan, with a part of his brigade, who arrived too late to cut him off. On the next day (31st Oct) Gen. Lucas made arrangements to storm the town, if the garrison did not surrender.—Gen. Atchison returned home, considering himself dismissed by the Governor in appointing Gen. Clark to the command. A flag was sent from town to our camps, who were formed in line of battle within a quarter of a mile of the the town, and Jo Smith, Sidney Rigdon, Lyman Wright, Hiram Smith, and Robinson, (Rigdon's son-in-law,) being the leaders, were marched down and delivered to us as hostages, until the treaty of capitulation was consummated. On the next day, November 1st, some delay having occurred in the surrender of the Mormons, General Lucas formed his plan of attack, came up to the town, and the garrison of Mormons marched down with drums beating, formed a hollow square, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and laid down their arms and remained prisoners of war. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the Governor having ordered [illegible] to exterminate them or drive them [illegible] [illegible], and that General [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] articles of capitulation were completed, and about 500 stand of arms delivered up, besides several [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Danites [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] county to escape [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] well [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Where they are gone, we have not learned, but hope [illegible] [illegible]—[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Mormon, a strong [illegible] [illegible] county, about 20 miles [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] this place [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Gen. Parks [illegible] [illegible] companies of his Brigade, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] his troops [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the last strong hold [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] 120 guns, 20 [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]—the remainder [illegible] now [illegible] engaged in making preparation [illegible] [illegible] Jo Smith, [illegible] Rigdon, Wright, Wood, and other leaders. Besides these, he has between forty and fifty Mormons of a subordinate class, chiefly Danites, under a strong guard in the Court house. Their trial will commence to-morrow, of the result of which I will advise you.

It is a great pity that the Danites have mostly escaped. Had not the movements of Lucas and Atchison been so prompt, the whole, Jo Smith and all, would have left here, and our object would have been defeated. These things, I believe, from a string of events, put together by me though in a very incoherent manner, with reference only to my memory, for I was spectator to most of them, being out in arms at different times since the 1st September last, nearly eight weeks. I acted as aid to General Parks, who was in the field with me all this period; and hope such a time I will never witness again. I have been thirty days in the woods, without house or shelter for men or officer—the ground, our bed; our saddles, our pillows;—combating and checking the murderous vengeance of a worse than Murrel gang. They are now conquered, their leaders in chains, and I hope they never will be permitted to disturb this community again. The severest penalties of the law await all whom we can convict.

The expense imposed on the State by these fanatics will be immense. Gen. Clark will not force the Mormons away this winter; and to see the amount of suffering imposed on these people, particularly the women and children, would affect the heart of the most inveterate enemy, and must call down on the heads of Smith and Rigdon fearful responsibility. These scoundrels, to promote their own aggrandizement, must have each 1200 dollars a year salary, from a poor, industrious set of men, and to enable them to pay this, they urged them to steal and to rob from the citizens [illegible] country, and refused to let the people pay their just debts.

We have Smith Rigdon and Dr. Avord here, in chains, closely confined under a strong guard, and I hope they will never get from here until they satisfy the world, by their deaths, for the crimes they were instrumental in committing. For the last [illegible] months, Smith has been raving incessantly, the life of Mahomet and was endeavoring to copy after him. The time, he had his flight and his revelation, and he has said boastingly, that the time would shortly come when it would be, 'Jo Smith or the sword,' as it was with Mahomet, 'the Koran or the Sword.' It was his design to revolutionize the State, then the adjoining States, become President of the United States, and finally revolutionize, in politics and religion, the whole world. He is about 33 or 34 years of age and if his career had not been checked he might have done great mischief. It is said by the most intelligent of the dissenting [illegible] who are witnesses against him, that he is deistical or atheistical in his opinions; [illegible] say they of Rigdon, and the whole of [illegible] leaders, I think, are strongly tinctured with infidelity.

The above letter, received by the last mail, is from gentlemen of Richmond, in whom we have implicit confidence. The same mail brought us another, from which we make the following extract:

The most important, as well as the most exciting part of what I sat down to write you, is yet untold. A ponderous book of papers has been found, among the goods and chattels of the Prophet, the contents of which [illegible] [illegible] bare the marrow, bone and sinew of an unprecedented and magnificent system of roguery! The papers I have [illegible] seen, the universal [illegible] [illegible], that a portion of the Lat[ter Day] Saints, headed by the prophet Joseph, have formed themselves into a society of pillage and plunder: that is to say, their [illegible] engaged by constitutional provision, individually to plunder and steal such moveables as they can lay their hands upon, which, at designated fixed periods, were to be divided amongst the members, or disbursed for the good and benefit of all concerned. Moreover, it is stated that some of the members of this club, are quite proficient in the art of counterfeiting paper and silver. Such as have joined this banditti, call themselves Danites. To the articles of agreement, or constitution, (to which I have alluded) were annexed the signatures of the members, and by this, Gen. Clark was the better enabled to detect and bring to justice the most of them. We brought with us, to Richmond, for trial upwards of fifty of this mystic conspiracy. One or two of them have turned State's evidence. A more bold and daring attempt at wholesale robbery, (among christians (?) is not to be found in the annals of crime; and happy should the lovers of law and civil liberty feel, when they reflect upon the fact, that these vagabonds and rascals are within the gourds of justice, there to answer for the outrages of which they have been guilty.

[illegible] June, 183[illegible]

Messrs Glasco & [illegible], Cincinnati.

GENTLEMEN— [illegible] some of your "Gardner's Liniment" (a few bottles of which my brother procured of you whilst travelling) and being anxious of having some constantly on hand for the use of my family, I herewith transmit you —— dollars, and request that you send me its amount in Liniment. Please have it put up compactly, and forward with all possible despatch to Major L. G. De Russey, U. S. Army, care of Messrs Cories & La Place, merchants, Nachitoches.

I find pleasure in stating that the application of this Liniment on several occasions, under my own eye, has satisfied me of its great value, and shall have its use recommended in the Army, and neighborhood generally.

Your Obed't serv't,
LEWIS G. D. RUSSY, U S. A.

Cincinnati, July 24th, 1834.

SIR,—It has been my desire for a long time to make known to the Public the good effects with which I have used "Gardner's Vegitable Liniment," and pleased with the present opportunity, I will testify that I have within these three years used fifty bottles of the said Liniment, and can safely pronounce it the best remedy for any Sore, Gall or Chaff, Bruise or Sprain, Cut, Burn, or Scald of any kind on man or horse which has ever come within my knowledge. I would not for any small consideration agree to do without it. I would recommend it to every person or family to keep a bottle on hand, that in case of Burns or Scalds, or wounds it could be applied immediately.

Yours Respectfully,
GARRET D'ZLHAGEN.

Cincinnati, July, 12th, 1834.

This certifies that I have within about three months past used four bottles of "Gardner's Vegitable Liniment," and can say without hesitation, that it far exceeds any thing they have ever tried in healing any kind [illegible]. My long experience in the Livery Stable business has afforded an opportunity of finding many valuable remedies, but I am willing to acknowledge that the "Vegitable Liniment," goes far ahead of any thing in the cure of horse flesh which I have ever discovered.

S. LIPPINCOTT.

DEAR SIR,—

It is with pleasure I hand you my certificate in favor of Gardner's Vegitable Liniment. I have used it repeatedly [illegible] for severe Bruises, [illegible] and particularly in one instance [illegible] valuable Horse, which was so severely [illegible] as to render [illegible] apparently worthless. In this case I applied two bottles, and in two weeks time he was as sound as ever. I have also used it effectually [illegible] the Eye. [illegible]

Anderson [illegible], 1835.

Cincinnati, [illegible], 30th, 1831.

This may certify [illegible] "Gardner's Vegitable Liniment," [illegible] months past, [illegible] kinds of [illegible] and Wounds on Horses, and find it to exceed any other medicine that we have ever tried.
